

Taylor Swift Music Camp: A March Break Experience Like No Other

Looking for a fun, creative, and engaging activity for your child this March Break? At the Hear & Now Taylor Swift Music Camp, young musicians and Swifties alike will explore Taylor Swift's iconic "eras" while building confidence, honing musical skills, and making unforgettable memories.

From March 10–14, 2025, each day will immerse kids in one of Taylor's legendary eras, with hands-on music workshops, creative activities, and an exciting final performance for friends and family.

What Your Child Will Love About This Camp:

 Songwriting Workshops: Campers will discover how Taylor Swift creates her signature hits while learning to write their own songs—perfect for sparking creativity and self-expression.

 Instrumental Training: Whether they sing, play piano, or rock the guitar, our experienced instructors will guide them in learning Taylor's hits while strengthening their musical abilities.

 Creative Crafts: From making friendship bracelets to designing custom "tour merch," campers will get to express their creativity in ways that tie into each day's musical theme.

 The Final Performance: The camp culminates in an "Eras Tour"-style performance where campers show off what they've learned. This is a highlight of the week—parents, family, and friends are invited to cheer them on!

 Themed Dress-Up Days: Each day celebrates a different Taylor Swift "era," so your child can come dressed to impress. Whether it's sparkly outfits from 1989 or cozy Evermore vibes, they'll love bringing Taylor's music to life.
